A Letter from the President

Hello my fellow live theatre lovers. We have had some amazing shows presented in the first half of the year, haven't we?!? Kudos to all of our theatre organizations for productions very well done.

July 1 begins Albuquerque Theatre Guild's new fiscal year. I am happy to report that we have stayed within our annual budget for 2025-26, congratulations to our outstanding board of directors for their financial stewardship.

As a new year begins there have been a few changes to our board. Allen Wolfenbarger has completed his 3-year term and is unable to accept a second term due to his extremely busy schedule. He has kept our finances in excellent shape, and we truly appreciate his dedication to ATG.

One of ATG's founding members, Claudia Mathes, returned to our board in 2023. Because of Claudia's extraordinary service, unwavering dedication, and outstanding contributions to the Albuquerque Theatre Guild and the theatre community, ATG board of directors has designated her our first Board Emerita and made her a lifetime member.

We'd also like to welcome Mark Peacock to the board of directors. Mark has vast experience in finances and non-profit organizations and will be a huge asset to our board.

Wishing you all a wonderful summer, thank you for supporting live theatre arts!!!

—Vicki Marie Singer

THE ADOBE THEATER

EST. 1957

The Adobe Theater’s 69th year! Our mission is to present the finest, diverse plays and musicals; to provide educational guidance; to encourage the development of new theatrical works; to furnish an opportunity for theater enthusiasts of all ages with any degree of experience to grow in their ability on stage and behind the scenes.

July 17 - August 9 THESE SHINING LIVES, directed by Daniel Anaya, is a touching drama, based on the true story of four women who worked for the Radium Dial Company, a watch factory, in the 1920s. The play showcases the danger women faced in this workplace and highlights the wider lack of concern companies had for protecting the health of their employees.

September 4 - 27 Arthur Miller’s THE CRUCIBLE, directed by Georgia Athearn, dramatizes the story of the Salem witch trials that took place in Massachusetts. Miller wrote the play as an allegory for McCarthyism, when the U.S. Government persecuted people accused of being communists.

BREAKINGEVEN EST. 2020

An Albuquerque-based adult dance troupe built on the belief that dance should be accessible, empowering, and inclusive for everyone. Our dancers come from diverse backgrounds and experience levels, united by a shared passion for movement, creativity, and connection. Rather than focusing on perfection, we embrace dance as a powerful tool for storytelling, self-expression, and community building.

Founded by Artistic Director Annmarie Garcia Sheahan, BreakingEven creates original productions that challenge traditional ideas about who dancers should be and what dance can achieve. Through innovative choreography, compelling narratives, and a collaborative spirit, we bring meaningful stories to life on stage while fostering a welcoming environment for artists and audiences alike.

Save the Date! Mark your calendars for THE SERPENT UNDERNEATH. Inspired by Shakespeare's Macbeth, this feminist retelling explores ambition, power, privilege, betrayal, guilt, and madness through original narration and multi-genre choreography set in a unique matriarchal world. Coming January 2027!
